

1789

1912 Dates I-BK

(1744-1793) Jean Paul MARAT

French revolutionist. Born at Boudry, near NEUCHÂTEL. Became an army physician and was author of several treatises, both scientific and political. In 1789 he established the journal "The Friend of the People"
and was forced to leave the country.
After the massacre of CHAMPS de MARS (1790). Brought to trial at the request of the GIRONDEISTS (APR 1793)

and acquitted. But was stabbed (July 13, 1793) by CHARLOTTE CORDAY.

Feb 4, 1789

George Washington was chosen
First President of U.S.

June 1, 1789

Congress took its first official action as a body, passing an act regarding procedures for administering oaths for public office

Feb 4, 1789

George Washington chosen as 1st Pres.
of the U.S.

Apr 30, 1789

George Washington was inaugurated as first President of U.S.

1789

Life expectancy is 35.5 yrs.